Every person in our care homes is a unique individual and it is our privilege to support them at a vulnerable time. All our efforts are tailored towards ensuring that our residents feel valued, supported and respected even at a time when there may be no easy answer.

Our staff are here to help and to provide support every step of the way. They receive extensive and ongoing training to ensure our residents time with us as fulfilling as it can be. Every resident is given the opportunity to gain additional support with the allocation of a key worker. Care is just as much about someone's mental state as their physical well-being and their key worker will take that extra time to get to know them and provide the personal touches which can be easily missed.

Detailed care plans are developed to ensure we meet the needs and preferences of each individual. Residents and their families are encouraged to fully participate in the writing and reviewing of these plans.

Your Dining...

At St Philip’s Care we are passionate about food and believe in having the very best ingredients for our catering team to create and display a well-balanced, nutritious and appealing food for a wide range of palates. We know a good diet helps contribute to our residents’ quality of life in a number of ways. We are also committed to working with suppliers and try to ensure that our food is of an excellent quality and is sourced locally, seasonally and sustainably.

Our Chefs consult with our residents on a regular basis to ensure we understand their dietary requirements and food preferences. Our meals are carefully planned offering choice matched with individual taste and all special diets are catered for. We provide a carefully planned four-weekly menu cycle, which is changed seasonally, to ensure all residents enjoy a variety of delicious dishes every day of the week.

Making sure that our residents get the opportunity to eat and enjoy appetising and nutritious food is one of the most important aspects of our care. Our staff have a key role to play in ensuring that residents’ mealtimes are seen as an important part of their care, where they can enjoy the social as well as nutritional benefits of eating in a relaxed and welcoming atmosphere.
The life story of each of our residents reflects a rich tapestry of experience spanning many decades. Understanding their experiences and interests allows our activities colleagues the opportunity to arrange and develop appropriate events and activities to fulfil their wishes.

We at St Philips Care understand how important daily activities can be to both stimulate and allow an individual to integrate within the home. We see evidence every year of how our staff engage with our residents to overcome the uncertainty in the change of their surroundings and to integrate them into the community offered by the home. If we provide the right environment a care home can be a great place to make new friends and acquaintances.

Our Activities Organisers meet several times a year to share ideas and to keep abreast of new techniques as we continually seek to improve the experience for our residents.

Your early engagement with us to ensure we understand your loved ones interests and life story is a part of the joint commitment to ensure they settle with us as quickly as possible.
