

Website Users Privacy Notice

Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to us. If you provide us with any personal data (such as your name, address, telephone number or email address) while using this Site, we may use it to provide you with any information or services that you have requested.

We may also use it for any other purpose for which you give your consent. For example, we may send you additional information about our company, if you have consented to us doing so (by leaving us a message if you get in touch or emailing us an application form taken from the Site).

We will not contact you otherwise, unless you specifically ask us to and we will not sell-on your personal information, nor give access to it to anyone else unless there is a legal obligation for us to provide it.

We collect anonymised information about visitors' usage of the Site, to allow us to improve the structure and content of our Site.

Where our Site links to websites that are managed and maintained by others, we have no control over those other websites and you should read the other websites' privacy notices for their policy on their information collection and retention activities.

We may amend this privacy policy from time to time. It was last reviewed in May 2018.

If you have queries about this privacy policy, please contact us dpo@stphilips-care.com. You may ask us to change the way we use your personal information, or to correct or update the information we hold about you at the same email address.
